

El Escorial Owners' Association

Please do NOT allow your dog to urinate on the building. This is a violation of the rules which prohibit urination in the common areas. It also leads to other dogs wanting to urinate in the same spot. Please be considerate of your neighbors and the rules of the association.

If anyone sees a dog urinating in the common area and reports them to management, a violation letter will be sent which may lead to the imposition of a fine.